- Site geographical location analysis;
- Site measurements;
- Establishing land legal status;
- Collecting data from the weather stations in the area (average wind speed & main direction analysis);
- Estimation of the distance to the National Grid System;
- Site physical potential analysis (necessary to establish the target project capacity);
- Data Final Analysis.